

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

SARA TAYLOR, on behalf of herself and others
similarly situated,
Plaintiff,

v.

SENIORLINK INCORPORATED d/b/a
CAREFORTH,
Defendant.

C.A. No. 1:25-CV-10832-RGS

ASSENTED-TO MOTION TO EXTEND TIME IN ORDER FOR THE PARTIES TO FINALIZE THEIR RESOLUTION OF THE MATTER

Defendant, Seniorlink Incorporated d/b/a Careforth, with the assent of Plaintiff, Sara Taylor, requests that this Court grant an extension of three days for the parties to finalize their resolution of this matter and file a Notice of Resolution, including a request for a stay on all deadlines until the matter is voluntarily dismissed. As grounds for this motion, Defendant states:

1. This Court previously granted Defendant's assented-to motions for extensions to file a responsive pleading to allow the parties to pursue early resolution negotiations, extending its time to file a responsive pleading up to and including July 14, 2025.
2. The parties have now reached a tentative resolution of the above-captioned matter on an individual basis and have exchanged terms, drafted a formal written settlement agreement, and are currently in the process of finalizing said agreement, a process they believe will be able to complete in three days.
3. The parties state that this extension is requested to allow them to finalize the resolution of this matter, at which point they anticipate filing a Notice of Resolution, including a request for a stay on all deadlines until the matter is voluntarily dismissed.

WHEREFORE, Defendant requests that the Court grant it an extension through July 17, 2025, for the parties to file a Notice of Resolution, including a request for a stay on all deadlines until the matter is voluntarily dismissed.

Respectfully Submitted,

SENIORLINK INCORPORATED d/b/a CAREFORTH,
